DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No. 08/776,443, filed on April 17, 1997. Claim Objections

2. Claims 32-33 and 39-40 are objected to because of the following informalities. Appropriate correction is required.

In claim 32, line 1, the word – a – should be inserted before the word “frequency”. In line 2, the phrase “the frequency” should be changed to – a frequency --.

In claim 33, line 3, the word – said – should be inserted before the word “detection”.

In claim 39, line 5, what is the word “it” referring to?

In claim 40, line 2, the word – said – should be inserted before the word “monitor”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 20-27 and 39-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 20, line 14, the phrase "said drive means" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 26, line 3, the phrase "detection part" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 27, line 3, the phrase "the detection part" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 28, line 2, the phrase "the driving" lacks antecedent basis. Also, what "driving"?

In claim 29, line 14, the phrase "said detection part" lacks antecedent basis. In line 20, the phrase "detection part" lacks antecedent basis.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 20-37 and 39-40 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-14 of U.S. Patent No. 6,244,095 (Nozoe et al.) or claims 1-10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,705,151 (Nozoe et al.) or claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,732,586 (Nozoe et al.). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims presented in the above-mentioned references (all issued to Nozoe et al.) claim the features as presently claimed in the instant Application. For example, the claims in the references claim a sensor element having a vibrating part, a detector part; a drive circuit to supply a driving signal; a monitor circuit to provide a monitor signal; a detection unit including a pair of charging amplifiers or current amplifiers; a synchronous demodulator; an adjusting unit having an adjustor (i.e. attenuator) and an injector. Furthermore, the specification of all three of the Nozoe et al. references suggests and teaches the features and elements of the claimed invention. Therefore, the instant Application is not patentably distinct from the above-mentioned references.
